

Cottagers Closing Summer Homes in Connecticut Towns

Many Leave Resorts, but Some Arrive for Early Autumn There.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. GALESBERRY, Conn., Sept. 23.—Every day sees cottages here closing and houses scattered back from the river have lost most of their summer guests. This is true of all southern Connecticut towns.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks of Elm-hurst, L. I., who have been spending two weeks at the Fabel cottage, have returned home. Mrs. L. E. Brooks is to remain for some weeks yet.

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. George Frost and family left for their home in Montclair, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Burton and their daughter, Miss Louise Burton, who have occupied Leisure Hour cottage for the season, returned this week to their home in New York City.

Mrs. J. Raymond Perkins and her daughter Patricia, who have been spending the summer at the Perkins cottage, left Monday to join Mr. Perkins in Newark, N. J.

Miss Carrie C. Williamson of Brooklyn is spending some days with her sister, Mrs. Belmont of Montclair, N. J., at her summer cottage, the Eluff.

Miss Eva Sims and Miss Ella Walker of Brooklyn are guests at the Smith cottage.

Mrs. Helena Craven of New York is the guest of Mrs. Thomas Harland at Norwich. Miss Nellie Brennan of New York is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Shea of Broadway. Mrs. E. L. Knowlton of Montclair, N. J., is passing some weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Yerrington of Pecks Corner, Norwich Town. Dr. and Mrs. Ellis Bonine of Forest Hills, L. I., are guests at Pine Tree Cottage, Yantic.

Carle Flerke of St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, on duty aboard the U. S. S. Tadousac, and Miss Edith Hart, daughter of Mrs. Martha Hart of Benham avenue, Waterbury, were married Friday morning by the Rev. George W. Borden, pastor of the Quaker Hill Baptist Church, at the church parsonage in Waterbury. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother, John H. Hart, in Quaker Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Flerke will spend several days here before leaving for their home in St. Thomas. The bride is a graduate of the Windham High and the William Normal School and taught for two years at the Mayaguez High School in Porto Rico, for one year at Newington, this State, and for two years in the Virgin Islands.

One of the most important November weddings will be that of Miss Clara Alice Hall, daughter of Mrs. William H. Hall of South Willington, to Major P. Russell Smith of Norwich the week before Thanksgiving. Miss Hall is a graduate of Dana Hall, Wellesley, Mass., daughter of the late Senator Hall. Major Smith was graduated from Brown University in the class of 1918. He is now on Gov. Lake's staff as military aide-de-camp.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCulloch have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen Whyte McCulloch, to Mr. C. Stanley Kinney on Monday, October 2, in the First Baptist Church at Pawtucket, R. I. The attendants chosen are Miss Margaret Carpenter of Pawtucket, maid of honor; Miss Ruth Jencks and Miss Irene Eddy of Providence, Miss Dorothy Day of New York and Miss Verna Mills of Lynn, Mass., bridesmaids. Mr. William Allen will be best man and Messrs. Norman McCulloch, James Brown, Adam Sutcliffe, Hersey Johnson and Carl Smith ushers.

John Weldon, Jr., of New York is spending a few days with his father, Dr. John Weldon, in Willimantic. Henry Cartwright of New York is also visiting there.

Ronald J. Brown of New York is at his summer home on Broadway, Colchester, for two weeks' vacation.

Miss Lillian Gillingham of New York is visiting at Staffordville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bevens and Albert Weber of New York are staying at Danvers.

Dr. J. M. Kent of New York is staying with his father, Dr. J. B. Kent, of Putnam.

Miss Mary Lewis of New York has bought the Minter house at Old Lyme and will make many improvements before another season opens. She is now stopping at the Lyme Inn for several weeks.

Henry Steers of New York has opened his bungalow at the river front in Essex for the hunting season. James C. Duff of New Brunswick, N. J., is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. F. M. Huggins, in Essex. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Armstrong of Brooklyn are spending part of their wedding trip in Essex at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Birch on Railroad avenue. Miss Katie Hanks of Brooklyn is visiting at the Birch House, Essex.

William Arnold's new extravaganza, "So This Is Paris," is the feature at the new Moulin Rouge. Thirty singing and dancing girls are included in Arnold's latest offering.

The opening of the new Orangerie the past week ushered in the fall season at the Hotel Astor and many luncheon and dinner parties were given during the week. The American Institute of Banking will hold several affairs at the Astor during October. The Women's Division of the Republican County Division are also having a big luncheon there.

The Knickerbocker Grill, Broadway at Times Square, reopened for the season. Beginning to-morrow a series of afternoon tea dances will be featured. Ted Francis, formerly of the Oakridge Golf Club, has been made manager.

Paul Whiteman and his symphonists continue popular at the Palais Royale.

The Strand Roof is to have a system of terraces which will give the effect of an indoor al fresco. About the walls there will be indications of green trees and the out-of-doors. Silver and gray will predominate in the color scheme.

The Louis Sherry restaurant, at 300 Park avenue, catered to one of the most socially prominent gatherings in its history at the dinner on September 15, which unofficially opened the fall and winter season at this famous establishment. The main section of the restaurant, where hang the tapestries which were the outstanding feature of the early Sherry restaurant on Fifth avenue, was reopened after thorough renovation.

The business men in the financial and insurance districts are to have a new restaurant, the Cafe de la Bourne, at Liberty and Nassau streets. Frank To-

Summer Activity Still Continuing at Lake Hopatcong

Entertainments of All Sorts for Cottagers Lingering Into Autumn at Jersey Resort.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. LAKE HOPATCONG, N. J., Sept. 23.—Events have crowded one upon the other this week and so far there seems to be no abatement of the summer festivities. Many people are now here from the seashore resorts. They have come at a most auspicious time, for the brilliant foliage on the mountains which encircle the lake in another week will be in the height of their glory.

Mrs. James Wilson of New York, who is an enthusiastic golf player, entertained many lovers of the Scotch game at a golf dinner on Tuesday evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hollister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. James Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Parkinson.

Wednesday Mrs. William Ballard of New York, one of the prominent social leaders here this season, gave a farewell luncheon prior to her departure for Europe to thirty guests.

Lake Breeze, the summer cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burton Holcomb of New York, was the center of social interest Tuesday evening, the occasion being an elaborate musicale. It was preceded by a dinner, at which there were twenty-five guests.

Mrs. William Bailey of Brooklyn, an enthusiastic golf player, has donated a cup for the golf tournament next week on their nine hole course. It will be an invitation handicap and there will be thirty contestants. The tournament will be exclusively for women, including Mrs. Louise Thurston, Mrs. Howard Elliott, Mrs. James Graham, Mrs. Henry Stafford, Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mrs. Arthur Lawrence, Miss Lillian Pierce, Miss Florence Powers, Mrs. Arnold Thompson, Mrs. Wallace Kennedy, Miss Alice Kempton, Miss Jennie Marshall, Mrs. Willard Hawkins Hoffman, Mrs. Dudley Tilford, Mrs. William Farrell, Miss Dudley Perkins, Mrs. George Wright, Mrs. Thomas Holmes, Mrs. Henry Morrison, Mrs. Frank Talmage, Mrs. Bradley Hooper, Mrs. Alexander Parsons, Mrs. Henry Barrett and Mrs. Douglas Harrington.

Mrs. Marshall Kennedy of New York has sent out invitations for a musicale Thursday night, for which elaborate preparations are being made.

In the party of guests who were entertained on a coaching trip to Bernardsville Tuesday, given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holmes, were Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Watrous, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Carter and Mrs. Clifford Sherman.

Tennis is now a rival to golf in popularity, and the courts are daily crowded with enthusiastic votaries of the sport. Miss Helen Spencer, Mrs. Mildred Spaulding, Mrs. Wilton Hibbard and Mrs. Edward Soule are seen almost daily in practice or competition on the courts.

At the Chinese and Japanese cotillion on Tuesday night at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Packard of New York, a costume promenade through the corridors of the cottage was a source of amusement.

One of the delightful events of the week was the musicale and dramatic entertainment given at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Burnett on last Thursday afternoon.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Graham Brower of Brooklyn gave a ball at their estate, Green Point. The dancing was in the large pavilion overlooking the lake shore, adjoining the mansion.

There has been much entertaining this week, and among the hostesses who have contributed to the pleasure of the cottagers by dinner and coaching parties were Mrs. Henry Sawyer, Mrs. Russell Matthews, Mrs. Alfred Perkins, Mrs. James Willard, Mrs. Frederick Powers, Mrs. Paul Wilcox, Mrs. Morris Douglas, Mrs. James Patterson, Mrs. Carlton Baker, Mrs. Wallace Bennett and Mrs. Edward Simpson.

A number of fishing parties have been out in River Styx this week, making large catches of striped bass. Among the anglers were Mr. and Mrs. James Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Henderson and Gilbert Kirby.

Paul Poirer, the designer, paid a visit to Claver Garden on the first night of his arrival in the city.

The new La Vie, under the personal management of Miss Evelyn Stuart, is offering a new revue featuring Julia Gerity, John Hodge, for seventeen years with Jacks, is assisting Miss Stuart, and James Shea, more than twelve years with Shanley's, is floor manager.
